It is impossible to read the clippings files kept with care by the various field offices without realizing why that the FBI leaked were they it knew & felt it could without endangering a espionage itself.
The more prejudicial against Ray the more attractive to the FBI disinformation operators. The more it could make the country & the world believe it was doing a great job, the more certain the FBI likes to spread false hope & fantasy. It was all couched — unchallenged — by the press, which reported what the FBI leaked to it with accuracy
